

ATTACHMENT 2

My name is Jarmel Cherry, and I am writing this letter on behalf of my mother, Jamie Morton. She is the most important person in my life. One of my only sources of support, my emotional security, and the reason that I'm even standing today.

For as long as I can remember, my mom has been the person keeping my life together. She gives me a roof over my head, feeds me, keeps me safe, and has my back in every significant obstacle. I currently work as a government contractor, which sounds good in a resume, but there are no guarantees. The job that I have today could end tomorrow. My mom has helped me find new job leads, prepare for interviews, and focus on what my future may hold. She is the person who makes me continue looking forward when I want to keep looking back. If something were to happen to my mom, I'd honestly have no idea what to do next. Not only emotionally, that in itself would break me. But, financially, I do not earn enough money to support myself fully yet. I still have to rent a place, buy groceries, transportation, bills, etc. To be completely honest, I barely keep myself together now, even with her help. If I lost her, it would change everything, for the worse.

My dad lives in Stockbridge, Georgia. He is not able to take care of me the way my mom does. My mom has shown up for me every day of my life and made sacrifices for me for as long as I can recall. Jamie Morton is more than my mom. She provides me with stability. She is the reason that I have hope. Without her, I do not know what I would do next. That is the honest truth.

Re: Character Letter on Behalf of Jamie L. Morton

Dear Honorable Judge Brinkema,

My name is Cheryl Morton, and I am the mother of Jamie L. Morton. I am writing this letter with heartfelt sincerity, concern, and urgency, as I speak on behalf of my daughter, whom I deeply love and heavily depend on.

I have been diagnosed with Multiple Sclerosis (MS), a debilitating illness that affects my central nervous system and causes frequent attacks on my muscles. These attacks can result in intense pain, weakness, and at times, complete immobility. My condition is progressive and unpredictable. On my worst days, I am unable to care for myself in even the most basic ways. It is during these moments that Jamie becomes my lifeline.

Jamie is more than my daughter—she is my full-time caregiver, financial provider, and medical overseer. She ensures my medications are filled, and make sure that I have transportation to my appointments, communicates with my doctors, and monitors my health when I am too sick to do so myself. She has educated herself on how to manage my disease, and she advocates for me in ways no one else can. Living with MS is exhausting and, at times, terrifying. But Jamie's presence brings stability, safety, and hope into my life.

Beyond her caregiving role, Jamie supports me financially. Because of my illness, I am unable to work. Jamie makes sure I have housing, food, utilities, and access to proper medical care. Without her, I fear I would be left without shelter or the ability to sustain myself. Her absence—whether temporary or long-term—would be devastating to my physical and mental health, and could very well result in homelessness and medical decline.

The possibility of Jamie's incarceration would not only break my heart—it would severely endanger my health. Stress is a major trigger for MS flare-ups, and just the thought of losing Jamie sends my body into tension. These stress-induced attacks are painful and debilitating. I am terrified that the emotional and physical toll of her absence could leave me permanently damaged or worse.

Your Honor, I respectfully ask that you consider the deep impact that any sentence could have—not only on Jamie—but on the life of her ill and aging mother. Jamie is a remarkable woman. She is not perfect, but she is full of love, compassion, and a sense of responsibility that most people only talk about. She is adored by our family and loved by all who truly know her.

Thank you for your time and for considering this plea from a mother who depends on her daughter not just out of love, but out of necessity.

With deepest sincerity and respect,

Cheryl A Morton

To: [REDACTED]

To the Honorable Judge

I am writing to you on behalf of Jamie Morton, who has been a close family friend since her teenage years. Over the years, I have witnessed her journey and character development, and I am aware that she is currently facing serious charges that the Court is deliberating for sentencing. While I do not intend to excuse or downplay the circumstances surrounding her legal issues, I hope this letter can shed light on the remarkable qualities and commendable actions of the person I have come to know.

From our first meeting, Jamie has consistently demonstrated positivity and compassion. She is not merely a hardworking individual; she embodies dedication in her personal and professional endeavors. I have seen her volunteer countless hours at local shelters, where she coordinated food drives and assisted vulnerable populations, embodying a spirit of selflessness and community commitment. She has a unique ability to uplift those around her, often going out of her way to support friends in times of need, providing both emotional and practical assistance during trying times.

In addition to her unwavering support for others, Jamie has expressed profound remorse for the actions that have brought her to this point. She has shown a commitment to understanding the gravity of her mistakes and is determined to make amends. Her willingness to confront her past and engage in meaningful reflection demonstrates her desire for personal growth and change.

I respectfully urge the Court to consider Jamie as a whole person, beyond the charges she faces. I firmly believe that, if given a chance, she can emerge from this experience as a constructive and positive member of society. Jamie possesses the resilience and drive necessary to take full advantage of any opportunities for rehabilitation and personal redemption.

Thank you for taking the time to read this letter and for considering my perspective on Jamie's character and potential for positive change.

My name is Nadine Suarez, and I have had a personal relationship with the defendant, Jamie Latoya Morton, for over forty years. I am writing this letter to serve as a character reference on her behalf. I have known Jamie for a lifetime, having grown up alongside her and witnessed both her personal growth and professional journey firsthand. I hope this statement offers meaningful insight into her character, integrity, and the positive contributions she has made to her community, family, friends, and professional circles.

Over the years, I have known Jamie to be a person of honesty, resilience, compassion, and strong moral character. She has consistently demonstrated a deep sense of courage and kindness, inspiring those around her to strive for personal and professional betterment. Jamie supports and uplifts others, encouraging them to build meaningful lives and give back to their communities.

Before the success of her current venture, Mortell, Jamie ventured into entrepreneurship with the launch of Citygirl Spa, a business she later rebranded and relaunched as Luxe Bodi. Although her initial spa business faced challenges in a saturated and highly competitive industry, she approached the experience with ambition and optimism. Despite the difficulties, she remained determined and used the lessons learned from those early endeavors to grow as a businesswoman and leader. Rather than giving up, Jamie took the experience as a teachable moment, refining her strategy and deepening her understanding of branding, operations, and customer engagement.

Those experiences laid the foundation for Mortell's impressive growth. What began with fewer than five portable toilet units eventually expanded to a fleet of over 450, servicing clients throughout the DMV region. Jamie built relationships with both small businesses and nationally recognized brands, securing contracts for events ranging from backyard gatherings to major venues such as NFL stadiums. Her work ethic and ability to build something substantial from the ground up reflect her strength, vision, and tenacity.

Jamie has continuously invested in others; mentoring, collaborating with local entrepreneurs, and sharing her roadmap to success. Her dedication to building a better future for herself and those around her speak volumes about her character.

Your Honor, I respectfully ask that you consider this letter as a small, yet heartfelt, reflection of the woman I know Jamie to be. She recognizes the seriousness of the matter before her and understands the consequences of her actions. I firmly believe she is committed to learning from this experience, just as she has from past challenges. Jamie has the strength and integrity to turn this chapter into a teachable moment, not only for herself but for others who may find themselves in similar circumstances.

Thank you for your time and consideration. Should you require any additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Nadine Suarez

To Whom It May Concern,

My name is Brittany Brogdon, and I'm writing this letter on behalf of my cousin, Jamie L. Morton. Jamie isn't just my older cousin—she's like a big sister to me. We've always had a close bond, and I love her deeply. Watching her go through this situation has been hard, but I want to speak on the woman I know—because Jamie is someone who deserves to be seen for her full heart and character.

Jamie is the type of person who would give anybody the shirt off her back. I've seen her do it—time and time again. She doesn't think twice when someone needs help, whether it's family, a friend, or even a stranger. That's just how she's built. She's always been the one in the family who shows up, no matter what she has going on in her own life. And she doesn't complain—she just does what needs to be done, out of love.

She takes so much pride in being there for her family. I've always looked up to her for that. She's the kind of person who makes sure everyone else is good before thinking about herself. She's helped raise, support, and uplift people in ways that most wouldn't even know. Even now, with everything she's dealing with, she still finds ways to be there for me and others.

Jamie has always carried herself like a stand-up citizen. She works hard, gives back, and lives her life with purpose. She believes in doing right, even when it's not easy. I know her heart. I know how much she cares, how deeply she loves, and how committed she is to doing right by the people she loves—even the ones who may have turned their backs on her. That's just who she is. Jamie has always chosen loyalty, even when it wasn't returned.

She is a key part of our family. We need her—not just for support, but for the guidance and leadership she gives us all. She's the one we go to for advice, for help, for strength. Losing her even temporarily would be a major void in our lives.

I truly believe Jamie deserves to have this dismissed. If anything, I believe community service would be a more meaningful option—one where she could give back by helping other small businesses and young entrepreneurs learn what she knows. She's successfully built businesses from the ground up and could teach others how to lead, grow, and operate with integrity. That would be a powerful way for her to continue serving the community while turning this experience into something bigger than herself.

Thank you for taking the time to read my letter and for considering the full picture of who Jamie L. Morton is. She has so much more to give to this world, and I'll be right here by her side every step of the way.

Sincerely,
Brittany Brogdon

I am writing this character letter on behalf of Jamie Morton. Jamie is my sister, and throughout the years, she has helped me in so many ways. This week has been the most helpful. My husband had surgery on April 10th, and there was a chance that he may not survive. Jamie was the first person to reach out to me and offer the support she could. Even if it was just a ear to vent to. Without her mentally I do not think I would have made it. Since I do not drive, Jamie immediately started thinking of ways she could help. She got the family together for an emergency meeting and set up a schedule to have different relatives come and stay with us till my husband was discharged from the hospital. Since I live in a rural area, she ordered groceries to come to the house. She sent me money so I could catch a taxi to go back and forth to the hospital to visit my husband.

Jamie also helps our mother out financially, without her our mother would not be able to afford her apartment or food. I have also seen Jamie help many of our family members financially. In recent months with a lot of our family members being laid off by the government. Jamie has helped them by paying rent, car note, money for groceries, etc.. Jamie She always had a dream that she would be able to take care of her entire family. She does nothing but wants the best for everyone. She is someone that people pray to have in their lives.

Furthermore, without Jamie I do not believe our family would be as strong as we are. She literally is the glue that holds everything together. For me losing her would be like losing a limb. When I am spiraling, she is the gravity that keeps me on the ground. Jamie is someone that everyone prays for. There are not many good people in this world, and I am to have one that I can call not only my sister, but my best friend.
